

About Ian your Coach

Ian Mac Mahon has been involved in photography since the 1970's. He trained in Kevin Street in Photography in the early years. From the beginning he has had a passion for a good image, be it processing images in dishes or colour printing with Kodak in the UK. During his career he has photographed for many different clients from Government departments, State and Semi-State Companies and small and medium sized business at home and broad.

Ian who is a member of The Irish Professional Photographers Association and a Member of the Teachers Council of Ireland has, taught digital photography to individuals and companies for over 20 years.

As a result of his work in the Fuji Shops in Dalkey and Shankill and Bray that he has put together a series of short courses for clients of the shops based on various requests. It is hoped to give people who attend a greater understanding of the world of digital photography.
